Dear Weichel Team,

(and I mean team!) I'm a realtor and both of my parents are brokers; I've worked for title/escrow companies and my brothers are lenders. Having said that, I can honestly sing your praises as the most knowledgeable, diplomatic, enthusiastic and skillful team I've ever worked with on a real estate transaction. You handled the expected (and unexpected) bumps in the road easily and efficiently. You never wasted my time, and you always kept me updated and informed.

I appreciate everything you did to make selling our home (and buying a new one) a great experience. At first I doubted you could actually get our asking price, but you did!

Too bad we can't buy and sell more often because it is such a pleasure dealing with such professionals.

You do what you say you'll do when you say you'll do it. I can't ask for more than that.

E. E. Buongiorno
