

TESTIMONIAL

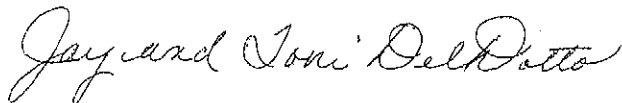

March 21, 2004

My wife and I have had the pleasure to buy or sell several homes through Neal Weichel. The most recent transaction was completed on March 12, 2004. Neal is the most knowledgeable real estate person we have ever met. He and his staff stay on top of the transaction and never let loose ends occur.

Neal and his staff are helpful, informative and always courteous. They readily answer any questions that a client may have. He and his staff will keep you informed of the progress of the transaction on a regular basis and make positive suggestions on selling or buying a home.

My wife and I believe that Neal Weichel is the ultimate real estate professional. If you want only the best, then we highly recommend you contact Neal Weichel.

Thank you Neal!
